POLICIES RELATED TO APPLICATIONS AND REPRESENTATION

- Applications must be completed in full and must include all required financial documentation, or the application will be denied.
- You must answer EVERY question. Simply writing N/A across the page or crossing out portions of the application is not acceptable. It is your responsibility alone to ensure that all necessary information is provided.
- Each application MUST include the following:
 1. Three (3) recent paystubs or if recently unemployed, from last job;
 2. Last three (3) months bank statements from all accounts held in your name and/or spouse's name;
 3. Your spouse's last three (3) paystubs or if recently unemployed, from last job;
 4. If not employed or retired, then statements of your Social Security, SSI/SSD, unemployment compensation, workers compensation, and pension/retirement payments, which ever are applicable;
 5. If no income at all, then a signed statement from the person(s) supporting you;
 6. Proof of child support you pay or child support you receive;
 7. Proof of monthly mortgage payments or monthly rent payments.
- All applications must be submitted THREE (3) business days PRIOR to your next scheduled proceeding, or you WILL NOT receive counsel for your proceeding.
- Incarcerated applicants will not be required to provide financial documentation due to the inability to access it. HOWEVER, the application must, nonetheless, be completed in full. If you are released from incarceration while your matter is still pending, you MUST complete a new application and provide the required financial documentation.
- If your financial circumstances change in any manner, you must update our office and complete a new application with the required financial documentation.
- You must complete a new application for every new case and revocation that you receive. Do not assume that you will be provided our services.
- Unless you have a pending appeal, your representation by the Adams County Public Defender's Office ends thirty-one (31) days following your sentencing and/or revocation of supervision.
- Until such time as you have submitted an application which has also been approved, the Adams County Public Defender's Office does not consider you a client and will not discuss legal matters with you.
- If you are accepted as a client, the Adams County Public Defender's Office will only discuss your legal matters with you, unless you list other person(s) with whom you authorize us to discuss your case(s).
- If you are accepted as a client, then it is solely your responsibility to ensure the Adams County Public Defender's Office has all of your current contact information. You are solely responsible for providing any updated information.
