The Bureau may accept an offer, via the Repository Offer Form, of at least the minimum offer, as stated below, or an amount higher in $100.00 increments, on property held in the repository for unsold property only if is has the written consent of all the taxing districts where the property is located. Upon payment of the full agreed-upon price the Bureau shall convey the property to the purchaser, divested of all claims of whatever kind and have the deed recorded or bill of sale prepared at the purchaser's expense. (section 626 and its amendments) The property owner may not purchase his/her property from the repository. (Section 618 and its amendments)

REPOSITORY FOR UNSOLD PROPERTIES

Any property remaining unsold at a Judicial Sale after exposure to an upset sale, is placed in a repository for unsold properties. (Real Estate Tax Sale Law of 1947 Section 626 and its amendments)
