ADAMS COUNTY JURY CONVICTS MAN ON CHILD PORNOGRAPHY CHARGES

Adams County District Attorney Brian Sinnett announced that a jury has convicted Kamran Saleem, 30, of Ellicott City, Maryland, of Dissemination and Possession of Child Pornography. The jury verdict came just thirty minutes into deliberations convicting Saleem of all counts.

The charges were filed by Adams County Detective Eric Beyer, a member of the Internet Crimes Against Children (ICAC) Task Force following a tip received from the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children (NCMEC). Detective Beyer conducted a thorough investigation and was able to ascertain that Saleem possessed videos depicting child pornography which he sent to another person believed to be in Italy. Following this conviction, Saleem will face sentencing on May 24, 2021 after being evaluated to determine whether or not he meets the criteria for a sexually violent predator.

D.A. Sinnett indicated that this is a further example of the diligence and hard work of law enforcement in taking efforts to eradicate the scourge of the sexual abuse of children and predatory behavior in our community. Law enforcement is continuously seeking ways to investigate and prosecute these cases. D.A. Sinnett specifically wished to recognize Detective Beyer for his hard work and professional investigation. Also, special thanks to the Gettysburg Borough Police Department for their assistance in this investigation.
