

IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS OF ADAMS COUNTY, PENNSYLVANIA

In Re: House Arrest /
Electronic Monitoring Program

Administrative Order
Number 15 of 2023

ORDER OF COURT

AND NOW, this 27th day of June, 2023, it is hereby Ordered:

1. The Adams County Department of Probation Services shall operate a House Arrest / Electronic Monitoring Program, as defined by the Adams County Intermediate Punishment Plan, as a restrictive condition of probation sentencing alternative;
2. The eligibility for house arrest / electronic monitoring as a condition of restrictive sentencing is as follows:
 - a. The offender is serving a sentence following conviction of a driving under the influence or a driving under suspension related crime;
 - b. The length of the house arrest / electronic monitoring condition of supervision may not exceed 90 days; and
 - c. The offender is not serving a concurrent sentence which is ineligible for house arrest / electronic monitoring under paragraphs 2(a) and 2(b) above.
3. This Order will not impact or otherwise render ineligible any person currently serving a sentence of probation with restrictive conditions or awaiting sentencing pursuant to the terms of a plea agreement which has been accepted by the Court and specifically includes an identified length of house arrest / electronic monitoring as a condition of the agreement. The eligibility requirements of this Order shall apply to any re-sentencing following revocation of probation regardless of the nature of the substance from which the offender is being revoked;

4. The Department of Probation Services is directed to prepare policies and procedures for house arrest / electronic monitoring for approval and adoption by the Court; and
5. This Order is effective immediately and shall apply to all sentences imposed following this date except as otherwise provided herein.

BY THE COURT:

MICHAEL A. GEORGE
President Judge

Board of Judges
Donald A. Fennimore, District Court Administrator
Kelly A. Lawver, Clerk of Courts Office
Gale A. Kendall, Executive Director of Department of Probation Services
Brian R. Sinnett, District Attorney
Scott Harper, Public Defender
jvs